February 27, 2017
Lewis Center, Ohio
The 2017 Therapy Conference welcomes senior living therapists from around the state for a day of intense education. You will gain new perspectives on issues that drive your everyday work. The event is structured to combine networking and education on the hard topics that are confronting the senior care industry. The conference addresses issues facing all aspects of therapy but is pertinent to the whole range of long term supports and services professionals. Engage with experts while keeping current in an ever-evolving profession. Return home with new knowledge, polished skills and fresh perspective about how to advance excellence in senior living.

Conference Schedule:

8:30 am
Check In & Continental Breakfast
Take this time to pick up your conference materials, catch up with colleagues and enjoy coffee and pastries.

9:00 am – 10:00 am
Survey & Regulatory Update
Ohio’s Nursing Home Rules are currently undergoing the 5 year rule review process. There have been an increased number of immediate jeopardies cited with 104 citations in the first three quarters of 2016. We will review top survey citations, immediate jeopardy trends, Ohio survey issues, and the rule review changes.
Presented by: Mandy Smith, LNHA, CEAL, PTA, WCC, RAC-CT, OHCA Regulatory Director

Networking Break
10:15 – 11:15 am
Parkinson’s Disease in Long Term Care
This session is aimed at preparing therapy and nursing staff to provide care for the client with Parkinson’s Disease with a focus on mid to late stage disease and the long term care setting. We will cover recent findings in research regarding the benefits of exercise for individuals with PD and the types of exercise that have been shown to be effective. We will also cover ways to safely and effectively implement exercise for individuals with PD. Concepts regarding how to cue movement, such as the use of auditory and visual cues, will be covered. Strategies to help the client with PD participate actively in transfers and mobility are taught including proper positioning of both the client and the caregiver to reduce the risk of injury to both individuals. We will also cover tricks of the trade for making bed, toilet and chair transfers easier.

Presented by: Deb Kegelmeyer PT, DPT, MS, GCS, Professor of Health and Rehabilitation Sciences in the Physical Therapy division at The Ohio State University

11:15 – 11:30 am

11:30 – 12:30 pm
Dementia Assessment and Interventions to Improve Mobility for Rehabilitation Professionals
Appropriate assessment and treatment planning when working with clients with dementia requires that the therapist possess an understanding of the diagnoses included under dementia and is able to describe the cognitive areas impacted by each pathology. This session describes the different types of dementia, how therapists assess cognitive function and the impact of dementia on functional mobility. We will review the current evidence regarding the role of different cognitive domains and mobility and examine the assessment and treatment of mobility issues incorporating cognitive interventions such as dual-task training.

Presented by: Deb Kegelmeyer PT, DPT, MS, GCS, Professor of Health and Rehabilitation Sciences in the Physical Therapy division at The Ohio State University

12:30 – 1:15 pm
Networking Luncheon (included in your registration fee)

1:15 – 2:15 pm
Step Up Your Therapy Programs! How niche Programming Can Maximize QMs, 5-Star, Census and Revenue
As payment systems transition from volume to value, it is imperative that SNF providers take strides to provide and capitalize on their valuable services. Developing niche rehab programming can step-up quality of life for both short and long stay residents. In addition, these therapy specialties can be harnessed to improve star ratings through QMs, develop fruitful partnerships with referral sources and maximize patient satisfaction. This session will discuss how to easily identify opportunities and get started building a comprehensive and interdisciplinary niche for your market one step at a time.

Presented by: Shannon J. Condon, MA, CCC-SLP, Senior Facility Rehab Director, Versailles Health Care Center
Adam Parton, LNHA, Division Vice President, Trilogy Health Services

Steps to Preventing Immediate Jeopardy in the Areas of Pressure Injury, Falls and Weight Loss: A Therapy Approach

The number of Immediate Jeopardies has risen drastically over the last year. Each incident can lead to more than one citation. With the daily penalty amounts rising, it is imperative to identify and reduce potential risks. Your rehabilitation team should be a resource in developing person centered care plans and educational support for your team. In this session we will discuss treatment approaches, clinical pathways, best practices and modalities that will help reduce the risk of citations.

Presented by: Julie L. Bellucci, MS, CCC, SLP, Director of Clinical Development, Premier Therapy
Robin L. Boyle, BS, PT, Vice President of Operations, Premier Therapy
